Granted that

- The Applicant provides online services that are of interest for the GrIDP Federation,

The Parties agree as follows.

Art. 1 Object of the Agreement

Object of this Memorandum of Understanding is the affiliation of the Applicant to the GrIDP Federation as a Partner.

Art. 2 Resources

The Applicant requests the following Resources (of which registration forms are enclosed) to be registered²:

(name) (description)
2.
3.

The Federation retains the right of refusing requests of registration of Resources.

² Registering at least one Resource is mandatory for becoming a Partner of the Federation. Further Resources may be registered subsequently.

Art. 3 Promotion.

Parties recognize to each other the right of publishing the other party's name and logo on the web or the press, in press releases and presentations, to the end of advertising the collaboration, the Federation and the registered Resources. The same applies to the name and logo of the GrIDP Federation. Drafts of the materials to be published will be submitted to the interested party beforehand (usually at least 4 working days before the foreseen publishing date, unless a shorter deadline is agreed between parties). The concerned party shall unilaterally obtain to modify the materials in the following cases:

- Should the logo or other corporate graphics be different from the policies adopted by the concerned party on the subject, and/or from the Organization's visual identity manual or guidelines (e.g., the logo is too small for proper legibility, too little white space around the logo, differences in the corporate colors, etc);
- Should the corporate name and/or logo be presented in association with contents deemed misleading or such as, if published, may cause prejudice to the concerned party.

Furthermore, the concerned party may negotiate further modifications to the proposed materials, to better adhere to its corporate communication strategy.

For the exploitation of the GrIDP Federation's name or logo, draft shall be submitted to credentials-admin@ct.infn.it.

Art. 4 Personal data protection

Both parties are committed to comply with the obligations imposed by the currently valid EU Directive on Data Protection regarding processing of personal data.

Art. 5 Limitation of Liability

The GrIDP Federation are not in charge of financial and administrative relations among Partners; therefore, they are not liable for any controversies that may arise among Partners.

The GrIDP Federation shall not be held responsible for any consequences that may arise from the Organization's participation in GrIDP, and from the operation of Resources registered by the Applicant.
